Master's Message

Greetings, Brethren and Happy New Year!

Once again, please accept my most sincere appreciation for your confidence in me and our outstanding officer line for the 2024 Masonic year. A special thanks goes to “Always” Right Worshipful and Honorary Past Grand Master Jerry Fenimore for his great work installing the officers, and to Worshipful Brothers Joe Magoffin and Grover Sardeson for performing the duties of Installing Marshall and Installing Chaplain, respectively.

Congratulations are in order to Brother Jerry on the special honor conferred on him last week at the Grand Lodge Communication in Grand Junction. He is now an Honorary Past Grand Master. Congratulations and thanks, Brother Jerry for all you do for Masonry! Brother Junior Warden Grady Carter, Jerry and I represented you at the Grand Lodge meeting. As always, it was a great weekend filled with Brotherhood and renewal of acquaintances. As to the business, only two of the proposals passed – the resolution for RWB Jerry and another that clarifies who may sign a proposal for chartering a new lodge.

We are looking forward to a great year for the Brothers of Black Hawk Lodge #11. Plans are beginning to come together for a special family event during the summer when the Lodge is dark.

We are tentatively planning a joint communication with Central #6 and Harmony #61 on Thursday, April 11 at the Eastern Star Memorial Retirement Campus. This is our regular meeting night and our ladies are invited. Most Worshipful Grand Master Dave Reynolds will attend and will present 50-year awards to three Masons currently living at the ESMRC. Please plan to attend.

We hope to see you next week on Thursday, February 8 for our regular stated communication. We will be serving dinner at 6 and Lodge will open at 7. Ladies are encouraged to attend and enjoy the evening. Again, Brothers – Thank You and I look forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely & Fraternally,

Danny Tomlinson, PM
