Message From the East

My Brothers,
This has been a great start to this new year. We have listened to a great Master Mason proficiency, and brought in 2 new members and did their 1st degree. I would like to set a theme for each month dinner starting with March and St. Paddies day, so wear you green to Lodge and be part of the great dinner. Richard Talkington is doing the dinner again and it will be corn beef and cabbage with all the fixing's. I would like to thank everyone that helped put on the Entered Apprentice degree or were present to help welcome these 2 new members. Remember that posting will be every off Thursday if you contact me to let me know you want to study for your proficiency. I'm sorry I didn't make the last meeting because of the weather but thanks to the officer line for doing a step-up and doing a great job. If you need a ride to get to Lodge or anything else please let me know so I can get you the help you need. Would you like to have joint meetings with another lodge? Would you like to go back to Eastern Star home? Would you like to have a guest speaker come and give Masonic Education or anything else? This is your Lodge, get involved.

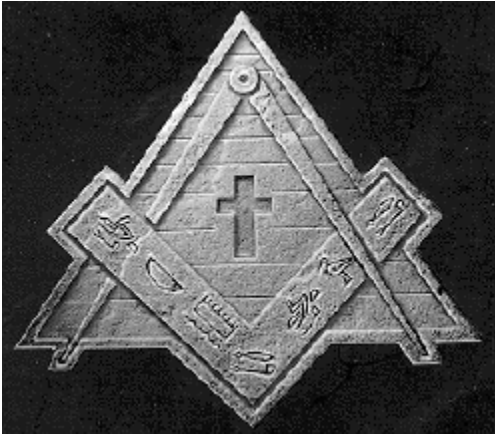

Your Humble Master,
Mark W. Ralston

Brotherly love is not a tangible commodity. We cannot touch it or weigh it, smell it of taste it. Yet it is a reality; it can be creative, it can be fostered, it can be made a dynamic power. The Master who has it in his Lodge and his brethren will find that Lodge and brethren give it back to him. The Master too worried over the cares of his office to express friendliness need never wonder why his Lodge seems too cold to his effort.
