Message from the East

Brethren,
It has been indeed my honor and pleasure to have served this Masonic year. When I look back, I feel good about the year, and what has transpired. We conducted an initiation, conferred both the FC degree and with the assistance from the Shriner Pipe Band put on a wonderful MM degree.
Our Lodge and Friendship Lodge voted to merge together. We cleaned and fixed the Lodge Building, and had a wonderful Holiday Brunch where we celebrated our 150 year anniversary and SW Karl Koenig reaching his 50 year milestone.
As we dwell together in unity one final time in 2016, we will conduct our election, and my time serving the Lodge will come to a conclusion. I want to thank everyone who has contributed and helped us in so many ways to make this a wonderful year to be Worshipful Master. We have a very special group of members, and a very special Lodge, and I am grateful to have served you this year.

Fraternally,

Greg Koenig, WM

Important note from the SW in the west , please read and remember:

Brethren,
The election of officers for the Masonic year 2017 will be held on our regular communication on December 8th 2016
