Master's Message

Greetings Brethren,

It was an intense start for our Lodge. On a somber note, we suffered two significant losses, but, we as a Lodge, ensured our respected Brothers were remembered fondly and properly, to the utmost satisfaction of their beloved families. The last I was informed, Brother Art Hidalgo's status is pending, and his cancer is being treated as well as the medical community can treat the affliction. Please continue your prayers for Brother Art and his family for a full recovery.

On a positive note, our Lodge has accomplished some major milestones this first part of our Masonic year with a job very well done:

- Raising Brother Douglas Graham to the sublime degree of Master Mason in Lodge
- Initiating three Candidates into our Fraternity in Lodge
- Improved floor and ritual work to the credit of our Director of the Work WB Karl Koenig and the fortitude and dedication of the Officers in line
- An increased attendance of fellow Brothers

We have two stated communications before we recess for the summer. I encourage all the Brothers to reset, relax and retune, but, it may be, however, necessary to conduct practices and degree work during the summer to ensure our newest Brothers are raised before the end of the Masonic year. As you may be aware, after August, the year is limited for ritual work due to Grand York Rite Sessions and holidays. I ask you support WB Karl and I to ensure we do future candidates and Brothers the justice of a degree well done within our Lodge and not soon forgotten.

I am pleased to say OUR Lodge has received many compliments to the officers, and the positive direction we are going. WB Bill Klatil has resigned as our District Lecturer, but when we last talked he told me how impressed he was with the quality of our work, and encouraged our continued progress and his offer to assist in any way possible. I thank all the Past Masters for their advice, guidance and positive comments of our efforts to improve. I have received many of the positive compliments, but it is our teamwork as Brothers and dedicated Masons who made the praise possible.

Join us for Rooster's BBQ our first meeting In May. I thank WB Eddie and Mark for their efforts as Entertainment Co-Chairman, as well as the Brothers who provided meals. They were all well appreciated and very well received by the Brothers, families and guests. Let's kick butt the rest of the year! Thank you all with my sincerest appreciation.

Respectfully and Fraternally,
Chuck Watts, WM
