Master's Message

Brothers,

I thank you very much for your election of me to be Worshipful Master of Blackhawk Lodge #11. I am humbled by your trust and support of me in this station. I am very happy with the elected and appointed line and know that each is dedicated to making Blackhawk Lodge a very respected Lodge in Colorado Masonry. I follow Worshipful Brother Mark Ralston's very successful year and am indebted to him for the excellent condition of the lodge and the enhancements that he instituted. I will be asking the new Grand Master, Most Worshipful Brother Karl J. Hinkle, to place us on his official visit schedule. I want to assure you all that I will continue the progress towards solid flawless ritual work for our meetings and in the initiation and progress of our candidates and brothers in the degree work. One of my objectives is to update our ritual paraphernalia so that our degree work will be more dramatic and meaningful to the participants. Another, I have asked the top three officers to learn the Masonic Funeral Service so that we may honor our brothers in event of a passing. This will require certification in the Service and I am hoping that we can get that certification by Spring 2012. Also, I want to have all Brothers abide by the traditional customs and courtesies for our meetings that have been spelled out in our ritual work. We have so much talent and experience in Blackhawk Lodge that I do not see us failing to meet these objectives. I encourage any and everybody to see where we can improve and I will listen, implement and act accordingly.

Faternally Yours.

Michael P. Rowan
Worshipful Master

The first meeting in January we will be treated to a pizza dinner, and a return to Bingo (with Prizes!) for the ladies.

Any brother interested in dazzling the members with one of their specialties at one of our first meeting of the month dinners - we would be delighted to make those arrangements with you.

The Entertainment committee is happy to welcome back Bro. Mark Ralston and would welcome others who have an interest in serving. Please contact Eddie McGrady if you have an interest.
