Master's Message

Brethren,

The Senior Warden, Junior Warden and I are just back from a very long Grand Lodge Session. Here's a quick update as to what happened. Amendment to section 97, Special Communications passed; section 112 Funds failed; section 129 number of lodges you can belong to passed; section 129 withdrawn; section 144 suspension from membership failed; section 175 Ballots passed; section 204 Masonic Burial passed; and resolution on the clear texts passed. The Grand lodge is asking all Lodges to have a special meeting on August 2, to commemorate the first session in Colorado and all Lodges are asked to participate.

Remember that neither myself nor the Senior Warden will be at the February 10th meeting so there will be a step-up with Karl taking the Master's station in my absence.

On the meeting of the 24th the Job's Daughters will be here to practice their ritual work for us and there will be a Masonic presentation on the York Rite by Roy Snyder and Mike Rowan, SW. I am trying to get PGM Ed Zorn to come and give up a presentation about the 150th anniversary in April.

Karl and his Degree team will be doing 2 Entered Apprentice Degrees on the 10th. There will be a dinner but we will suspend having the ladies attend as it will be a long night.

We will have another practice on Feb 3rd for the EA degree. Everyone is invited to come to the practices and participate with the officers. I would like to thank those of you that come to practice as I feel it is only going to benefit the Lodge now and in the future. I would like to continue having practice on our off Thursdays.

I would also like to encourage all to participate in MOA, this is going to be a very informative year for all officers and those of you that would like to go into the line.

On behalf of myself and the officers of Blackhawk we would like to wish all a Happy Valentines Day. Have a great meeting and EA degree and the SW and I will see you on the 24th.

Fraternally,

Mark W. Ralston
Worshipful Master

Other Messages

The Entertainment Committee hopes the Ladies will understand that we will not have Bingo during the meeting on the 10th - as the First Meeting will include TWO Entered Apprentice Degrees.
