Master's Message

Greetings Brethren,

Well Brothers, we have come the end of this Masonic year. I feel that we as a lodge have made good progress in expanding our membership. Not only have many Brothers joined us as plural members, but we have made several good men Brothers to us now.

I would like to thank everyone who helped and supported me this year. Like with everything when you look back on it there were things you would have liked to do differently, but to err is human. To learn from it and better ourselves is what makes us not only better people, but better Masons. I would also like to thank the committees for their hard work this year.

This also means it is election time. Just a reminder Elections and Installation will be held during the first meeting in December. There will be a dinner at the first meeting but please no wives. This is historically a very long meeting and we will have much to get done.

Due to the second meeting falling on the 23 we will not have a meeting that night. A majority of people usually are out of town, or will have people coming in from town. As we are taught to never have Masons interfere with you duty you owe to your family, spend the holidays with your family.

Fraternally,
Brian Fowler, W.M.

Dues are $42.00, please forward to the Lodge Secretary, Glenn Smiley.

Other Messages

The Entertainment committee has arranged for a special barbecued beef dinner coordinated by Mark & Mike to be enjoyed before our long evening of Elections and Installation.

There will be no entertainment for the ladies, but we look forward to their joining us again in January.

"To relieve the distressed is a duty incumbent on all men, but particularly on Freemasons, who are linked together by an indissoluble chain of sincere affection. To soothe the unhappy, to sympathize with their misfortunes, to compassionate their miseries, and to restore peace to their troubled minds, is the great aim we have in view. On this basis we form our friendships and establish our connections.
