Master's Message

Greetings Brethren,

Winter has now passed and we are beginning the days of Spring. It is a time to relax on our back decks and enjoy the sweet smells of flowers starting to blossom, and to appreciate the spring showers that bring the seeds of life back to our outdoor environment. But, more importantly it is a time to reflect on the past year and what is yet to come in the following months.

What will you reflect upon in your masonic journey, past and present? What would you like to learn, accomplish, teach, or spread to your masonic brethren this year? Whatever it may be that you reflect upon perhaps you would like to share it in lodge with us.

As the cherry blossoms begin to bloom in our Nation's capital, it brings to mind our founding fathers and the struggles they went through to begin the birth of our great nation. Most of who were masons and gave much of their time and efforts, expecting little in return, except that the country flourish and succeed.

As the cherry blossoms bloom and bring new life, so come new beginnings and the opportunity to succeed. To spread the basis and foundation of our great fraternity. That is to spread the brotherly love, friendship, and affection, for not only our brothers but to our family, friends, and to strangers alike.

Birthdays April 2019

Harry M Livermore 03, WB Tomas E Shotts 04, Lawrence E Schaufler 04, WB Richard D Silver 05, Horace M Varner 07, Robert E Yancey Jr 09, WB Brian L Fowler 09, WB Glen F Smiley 15, WB Gilbert W Carlton Jr 16, Timothy Weaver 17, Ryan C Grassmick 21, Diego A Rodriques 22, Daniel R Tayler 23, Gregory V Springer 23, David A King 25, Gilbert C Mohan Jr 26, WB Donald R Douglass 29, Garland R Dickinson 30

Please remember to attend the Sunrise service at the consistory on Sunday, April 21st. The service begins and 6.00 a.m.

“Spring is made of solid, fourteen-karat gratitude, the reward for the long wait. Every religious tradition from the northern hemisphere honors some form of April hallelujah, for this is the season of exquisite redemption, a slam-bang return to joy after a season of cold second thoughts.”
