Master's Message

Greetings Brethren,

Welcome back! I hope your summer went well and you are ready to begin the second half of the masonic year. We have much to accomplish during the remainder of the year.

We will have a step up the first meeting of September as I will be in Scotland celebrating twenty years of wedded bliss. In my adventures, I hope to tour and get a look at some of the masonic attractions. If anyone has any suggestions or something to bring back to share with the lodge, please feel free to contact me. At the yearly budget meeting, Grand Lodge determined that the per capita dues for 2020 will be $74.00 and the subsequent budget was approved.

I look forward to the remaining meetings and to get the current brothers standing on the master mason degree proficient. In addition, we have four candidates to get through the entered apprentice degree.

Fraternally,
John Culp -WM
