Master's Message

Brethren,

In this time of crisis we as masons must show that we not only care for our Brethren but also for our communities.

We need to do whatever we have to do to not only help stop the spread but also to help those in need, whether it be a brother or a neighbor.

Let your light shine. Be a source of strength and courage share your wisdom and radiate love.

As masons we are judged on speculation from people that are not trusting and believe us to be a bad institution. We must do what is needed to keep masonry alive and dispel some of the negative beliefs about our organization.

Please remember if you see something wrong and do nothing to correct it then you have just set a new standard.

I look forward to getting back into the lodge room with my brethren, whenever that may be.

Please take care until then and stay safe.

Ed Sisk WM

The true Mason always carries his working tools everywhere.

William Howard Taft

Not all Masons are obligated on the Christian Bible. Masonry is universal and men of every creed are eligible for membership so long as they accept the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Therefore, the candidate should be obligated on the Book of the Sacred Law which he accepts as such since his obligation is a solemn and binding one.

George Washington

Freemasonry embraces the highest moral laws and will bear the test of any system of ethics or philosophy ever promulgated for the uplift of man.

Douglas MacArthur
