Master's Message

Brethren,
Hard to believe that another month has passed already for some it has gone by quickly and for others we thought that it would never pass. I hope that this message finds you all well. I will just share with you one of my Favorite poems.

To live as gently as I can
To be, no matter where a man.
To take what comes of good or ill
To cling to faith and honor still
To do my best and let stand
The record of my brain and hand
And then, should failure come to me
Still work and hope for victory
To have no secret place wherein
I stoop unseen to shame and sin
To be the same when I'm alone
As when my every deed is known
To live undaunted, unafraid
Of any step that I have made
To be without pretense or sham
Exactly what men think I am.

As we get information from the Grand Lodge we will pass it on as far as returning to lodge we hope that we will be able to have our meetings this month.
Until I see you again brothers please be safe.
