Master's Message

Brethren,

We had the luck of the Irish on our side last month and were able to return to in person meetings. I was very happy to see brothers in person and look forward to the ladies being able to join us back at the lodge for the meals.

Please keep the families of our lost brothers in your prayers. We understand death only after it has placed its hands on someone we love. Remember that Life and Time are the two best teachers. Life teaches us to make good use of time and time teaches us the value of life. If you know of a Brother that is ill please let us know so that we may reach out to him.

As Masons we should remove thoughts from the outside world, assume an attitude of Brotherly Love, renew our spirits with our Creator, Envision A life of Hope, Remember Masonic Charity, Be prepared to Give and Receive Counsel, and Be prepared to Learn and Teach.

Guide us, Oh Lord to ever walk toward Your light that our shadows might ever lie behind us. Let us perceive our blessings that we may ever serve you with a Happy heart and a Quiet mind. I look forward to seeing you all in the Lodge Room.

Fraternally,
Ed Sisk WM

Masonic Quotes

The secret of Masonry, like the secret of life, can be known only by those who seek it, serve it, live it. It cannot be uttered; it can only be felt and acted. It is, in fact, an open secret, and each man knows it according to his quest and capacity. Like all things worth knowing, no one can know it for another and no man can know it alone.

William Howard Taft

Everybody really knows what to do to have his life filled with joy. What is it? Quit hating people; start loving them. Quit being mad at people; start liking them. Quit doing wrong; quit being filled with fear. Quit thinking about yourself and go out and do something for other people. Everybody knows what you have to do to be happy. But the wisdom of the test lies in the final words: "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

Norman Vincent Peale
