Master's Message

Brethren,

It is that time of year again when the leaves change into beautiful colors of orange, red and gold.

So far this year we have seen some struggles and we have lost a few brothers and members of our Masonic family, may we always strive to reach out to as many as we can just for a check up to see how things are going and to see if they are in need of anything.

I wish you all health and beauty in your lives. Please continue to pray for those that are ill or have experienced loss.

I hope that I can be like the Autumn leaf, who looked at the sky and lived. And when it is my time to leave, do so gracefully knowing that my life was a gift.

I look forward to seeing all my Brethren in the Lodge room.

Ed Sisk

Masonic Quote

Freemasonry is an institution founded on eternal reason and truth; whose deep basis is the civilization of mankind, and whose everlasting glory it is to have the immovable support of those two mighty pillars, science and morality. - Dr. John Dove

Masonic Quotes

Brotherly love is not a tangible commodity. We cannot touch it or weigh it, smell it of taste it. Yet it is a reality; it can be creative, it can be fostered, it can be made a dynamic power. The Master who has it in his Lodge and his brethren will find that Lodge and brethren give it back to him. The Master too worried over the cares of his office to express friendliness need never wonder why his Lodge seems too cold to his effort. - Carl H. Claudy

For centuries had Freemasonry existed ere modern political controversies were ever heard of, and when the topics which now agitate society were not known, but were all united in brotherhood and affection. I know the institution to be founded on the great principles of charity, philanthropy and brotherly love. -Bulwer
